"It is finished!" Perhaps you might remember that these were the last words of Jesus, just before he died. That, of course, was the most significant event in history.

A somewhat less significant event took place recently that warranted the use of the same phrase. The event that I'm speaking of is the completion of my monthly financial support team. Yes, it's hard to believe, but I'm actually packing my bags and preparing to move permanently to San Jose.

Looking back over the last 6 months, I realize what a beneficial time support raising has been. God has taught me so much, especially in the area of trusting in Him to provide all my needs. We serve an awesome God who promises to meet all of our needs, and once again, He is faithful to His word. God is indeed worthy of all the praise, glory and honor.

I want you to know how thankful I am to God for your prayers and encouragement during my support-raising time, and I also want to let you know how you can be praying for me over the next month or so. Please pray for the following:

- that I would raise the balance of my one-time needs for moving and settling-in expenses. I need to raise about $1400.
- that I would adjust to the San Jose area quickly.
- that I would adjust to the ministry quickly and would have an immediate impact for Christ.
- that I would find a good church in which I could get involved.

Again, I thank you for your support and I want to know how I can specifically pray for you. You can continue to correspond with me at my current address. I hope to hear from you soon.
