its builders labor
in vain.”*

already laid, which is Jesus Christ.”*

A Call To Prayer

Jennifer and I just returned from our regional conference where we spent a week talking about what we believe the Lord wants to accomplish through our ministry in the Fall.

It was a great time for Jennifer and me to dream about our future ministry in Davis. However, as reality began to sink in, our excitement became tempered by an overwhelming sense of inadequacy.

The task before us is huge, yet we serve a huge God Who is able to accomplish all that He desires in us and through us.

With all of this in mind, Jennifer and I desperately need your prayers.

There are two general areas of prayer that we need. First of all, we need personal prayer. Secondly, we need you to pray for those to whom we will be ministering.

A top priority for us is to find housing. We have a lead on an apartment that we hope will be available over the summer. Therefore, pray that this apartment would become available and that we would be able to move sometime during August. †

Jennifer and I will be doing a lot of traveling over the summer. † Pray that the Lord will protect us as we travel.

One of the highlights of our summer will be the training we receive while we are in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. † Pray that the Lord would teach us all that we need to know to be effective leaders at UC Davis. † Pray also that the Lord will give us wisdom as we make plans for the fall quarter.

Jennifer and I know that building a strong, healthy ministry will take a few years. We are hoping to build a ministry by reaching out to and raising up freshman who will be the foundation of our leadership within a few years.

Please begin to pray now for the freshman whom we will encounter in the fall. †

Pray that the Lord would make them incredibly open to the gospel and pray that we would have opportunities to reach out to them. † Pray even that the Lord would bring about circumstances in their lives this summer that will cause them to be more open to Christ in the Fall.

In the coming months, we'll continue to remind you about the need to pray and trust the Lord together. Together, we'll see

Pray specifically that Freshman will be open to the message of the gospel.
